Celebrate New Year's Eve 2017 on Cockatoo Island

Glamping, Camping Packages & BYO Camping Sites

On Sale 15 May 2017

Cockatoo Island is one of the best places in Sydney to watch Sydney's world-renowned New Year's fireworks displays. Right in the heart of Sydney Harbour, you'll enjoy a fun and relaxing night with family and friends – without the crowds, long walks home, or traffic jams.

While the fireworks display is the star attraction, there are so many great reasons to spend NYE 2017 on Cockatoo Island. We'll have a variety of activities for the kids, special guided tours, a delicious selection of food and drinks to purchase, and music to entertain you throughout the evening.

This New Year's Eve, Cockatoo Island is offering a range of different Glamping and Camping options to suit all budgets and tastes.

GLAMPING, CAMPING PACKAGES & BYO CAMPING SITES

Cockatoo Island in Sydney Harbour is open to the public daily, offering major events, exhibitions, venue hire, accommodation, tours and business tenancy. It is one of the ten magnificent sites managed by the Sydney Harbour Federation Trust, a self-funding agency created by the Australian Government to be responsible for the vision planning and management of former defence and Commonwealth sites around Sydney Harbour. The other public spaces and parklands managed by the Harbour Trust are North Head Sanctuary in Manly, Georges Heights, Middle Head and Chowder Bay in Mosman, Woolwich Dock and Parklands, Macquarie Lightstation in Vaucluse, the Platypus site in Neutral Bay, Marine Biological Station in Watsons Bay and Snapper Island in Sydney Harbour. www.cockatooisland.gov.au
